

Lab Report – RI Definitions & Rules for Entering Laboratory Fields Animal Rabies

Field on Screen	Description	RI Rules for Data Entry
Reporting Facility	Enter the name of lab PERFORMING the Test. To include reference laboratories.	Required Quick code for RI HEALTH Laboratories is RIDOH
Ordering Facility	The lab that PROCESSED the lab specimen. It could be the same as the Reporting Facility. (NOTE: The lab does not order the test.)	Not required
Ordering Provider	Name of the health care provider ordering the lab test.	Not Required
Program Area	Program Area associated with the condition. The program areas are: 1) General Communicable Diseases, 2) Hepatitis, 3)HIV/AIDS, 4) STD and 5)VPD (Vaccine Preventable Diseases)	Required Select General Communicable Disease
Jurisdiction	The geographic area responsible for managing public health activities including intervention, prevention and surveillance. There is only 1 jurisdiction for RI	Required Select Rhode Island
Share record with Guests for this Program Area and Jurisdiction	This field indicates whether or not the record should be shared with all users who have guest privileges for the Program Area/Jurisdiction.	Not Required
Lab Report Date	Date the Lab released the lab report. Date test result is FINAL by lab	Required This corresponds to the “Resulted Date”
Date Received by Public Health	Date Received by Public Health Over-ride pre-populated date with date received by public health.	Required This is the date that the Laboratorian reported the result to Communicable Diseases.
Ordered Test	The ordered test name	Not Required
Accession Number	A laboratory generated number that identifies the specimen related to this test.	Not Required
Specimen Source	This is the medium from which the specimen originated. Examples include whole blood, saliva, urine, etc.	Not Required

Field on Screen	Description	RI Rules for Data Entry
Specimen Site	This indicates the physical location, of the subject, where the specimen originated. Examples include: Right Internal Jugular, Left Arm, Buttock, Right Eye, etc	Not Required
Date Specimen Collected	Date the specimen was collected.	Required This corresponds to "Date Received (Lab)" date on the Laboratory Rabies Investigation Form.
Patient Status at Specimen Collection	Patient condition at the time that the specimen was taken	Not Required
Resulted Test	Test that was performed. Always use the search table. Enter the test that was performed	Required - Add Rabies Virus Result
Coded Result	The coded result value for a test, i.e. "Positive".	Required Positive, Negative, Not Tested.
Numeric Result	The numeric value for a lab report. The user can enter the number or the number plus comparative operators (<, <=, >, >=) and separators and the system will parse the data in the proper fields in the database.	Not Required.
Text Result	The Lab Result Text format field allows user to enter a textual result values (i.e., values not included in the coded drop down).	Not Required
Reference Range from:	The reference range from value allows the user to enter the value on one end of a expected range of results for the test.	Not Required.
Reference Range to	The reference range to value allows the user to enter the value on the other end of a valid range of results for the test.	Not Required
Result Status	The Result Status is the degree of completion of the lab test.	Not Required
Result Comments	Free text area for comments having to do specifically with the lab result test.	If the animal is not able to be tested specify the reason why.
Comments	User has option to enter free text comments about a lab report	Record bat species here, or anything other specifics on the animal.